The vestry book of St. Paul's Church, Hanover county, shows that he presided over St. Martin's Parish from 1754 [and probably earlier] until 1785. In that year he represented that parish in the Convention of the Episcopal Church called for organizing under the new State government after the Revolution. He died 1805 in Albemarle county. ENGLISH ANCESTRY OF THE DADE FAMILY OF VIRGINIA.

This account is derived from two English genealogical works: Genealogical Memoranda Relating to the Family of Dade of Suffolk (London, 1888,) and Pedigrees from the Visitation of Kent, 1663-68, edited by J. J. Howard and Robert Hovenden. We are indebted to Miss Idelle Keyes of Georgetown, Mass., for lengthy notes from the former book. Included in these books are pedigrees of Dade from the Visitation of Kent, 1663, Suffolk, 1612 and 1664, numerous extracts from parish registers, copies of epitaphs, &c.
